Ascension Lutheran Slates Registration

Ascension Lutheran School, 17910 South Prairie Avenue, will begin its ninth year with an opening service Wednesday, September 4, at 8:30 a.m.

Parents who wish to register their children for the 1968-69 school year may do so either Saturday, Aug. 31, between 10 a.m. and noon or Tuesday, Sept. 3, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the school.

Ascension Lutheran School is one of nearly 1,400 Lutheran elementary schools affiliated with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod in the United States and Canada. It was organized in 1960.

The school has grown from an original class of 8 kindergartners to its present enrollment of 150 students in kindergarten through grade 8.

Temple Selects Cantor

Morris Greenfield has been named the new cantor-educator at Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach. It was announced by Clark Kates of Torrance, president of the congregation.

He will be involved in administering the Religious Schools, teaching Hebrew and high school classes, assisting in the adult education program, preparing Bar and Bat Mitzvah students, in addition to serving as cantor and musical director, Kates said.

A native of Hungary, Cantor Greenfield received his elementary and Yeshiva education in that country. He was graduated in 1952 with the title of cantor-educator from the HUC-JIR School of Sacred Music and Education in New York.

Prior to joining Temple Menorah, he served as cantor and minister of religious education at Temple Sinai in Long Beach. A resident of Long Beach, he is married and the father of three children.

Adventists To Receive Offering

Members of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., will contribute to the construction of a new 125-bed hospital and clinic in Jamaica Saturday.

Mahlon Gilbert said the special offering, to be received at Sabbath school services, will go toward a construction fund to replace a 27-bed hospital, Andrews Memorial Hospital operated by the church.

Ten young Jamaican doctors will staff the new facility, Gilbert said.

'Aggressive Youngsters' Theme for UCLA Course

Aggressive youth whose behavior interferes with academic achievement will have the attention of teachers enrolled in a UCLA Extension fall quarter course meeting alternate Saturdays, Sept. 28 to Dec. 7, 8 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., at Mira Costa High School in Manhattan Beach. Psychologist Dr. Joseph Rosner, who will instruct "The Aggressive Child in the Classroom, Part II" will analyze the classroom behavior of such children and examine the dynamics involved.

Teachers attending the class may earn three units of credit. Further information is available by writing P.O. Box 24902, Education Extension, University of California Extension, Los Angeles 90024.

Parks Meeting

Members of the Torrance Parks and Recreation Commission will convene at 8 p.m. today for a regular meeting. The session will be held in the council chambers at the Torrance City Hall.

AT BIBLE SCHOOL . . . Mrs. Mary Malone, a music instructor at Immanuel Lutheran Church's Vacation Bible School, rehearses a religious folk song with students in the junior high department. With Mrs. Malone are (from left) Mark Englert, 12; Gayle Johnson, 13; Jime Eveland, 12; and Debbie Petersen, 12. Students will present their song at a closing service scheduled for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. (Press-Herald Photo)

'Christ' Is Topic of Sermon

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

This passage from the Gospel of John is part of the responsive reading in this week's lesson-sermon on "Christ Jesus" to be read Sunday in all Christian Science churches. The services begin at 11 a.m. in First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th Street and Manuel Avenue.

Related passages from the denominational textbook are also part of the lesson-sermon. Among those included this week is the following: "His consummate example was for the salvation of us all, but only through doing the works which he did and taught others to do.
